In the year 1858 (when making his famous canvass against Abraham Lincoln for United States Senator) Mr. Douglas borrowed $13,000 in cash from James Soutter, banker, of this city, and gave as security for the loan a mortgage on certain valuable out-lots in Chicago. This mortgage was executed by Mr. Doug-las and his wife, and (as was supposed) duly acknowledged by the latter before H. Kreissmann, notary public, who attested the fact, but failed to set forth in his notarial certificate that Mrs. Douglas was personally known to him. That she actually was so known, and that her relinquishment of power was voluntary and perfect, was not disputed; but it was held that the failure of the notary to set forth that fact in his certificate had invalidated her relinquishment, and authorized her to claim dower as though no such deed had been given. It was held that a law of Illinois expressly required the certificate to state the fact in question, and that three several decisions of the Courts of Illinois had affirmed that position. The case was argued for the plaintiffs (assignees of Soutter) by Goo. Shea, Esq., of our city Bar, whose position is endorsed by the Chief Justice in his opinion as "he true view of the question," and he concludes: "I am bound to decide that the demurrer here is not sufficient; in other words, that, by her acknowledgment as set forth and admitted, she (Mrs. Douglas) did, in fact, convey her right of dower.

The demurrer must be overruled." Before the case was argued, the plaintiff's counsel offered to pay the defendant $10,000 if they would waive the demurrer. They declined the offer, went to trial, and got nothing. N. Y. Tribune.

PARASITES IN BIRDCAGES .- Many a person has watched with anxiety and care a pet canery, goldfinch, or other tiny favorite evidently in a state of perturbation, plucking at himself continually, his feathers standing all wreng, always fidgeting about, and in every way looking very seedy. In vain is his food changed, and in vain is another saucer of clean water always kept in the cage, and all that sindness can suggest for the little prisoner done; but still all is of no ase, he is no better-and why! because the cause of his wretchedness has not been found out, and until it is other attempts are but vain. If the ewner of a pet in such difficultira will take down the cage and cast his or her eyes up to the roof thereof there will most likely be seen a n ass of stuff looking as much like red rust as anything and from thence comes the caus of the poor birds uneasine. 3. The red rust is nothing more nor less than mryriads of parasites infesting the bird, and for which water is no remedy. There is however, a remedy, and one easily procurable in a moment—fire. By procuring a lighted candle and holding it under every particle of the top of the cage till all chance of anything being left alive is gone, the remedy is complete. The pet will soon brighten up again after his "house warming." and will thank his master or mistress over and over again for this, though slight, to him important assistance .- Land and Water.

The Richmond Whig says: "We heard a merchant say Saturdey, who is a heavy creditor of a country merchant who has taken the bankrupt law, that if he had only known that he kept a buggy and a pair of fest horses, a double barrel gun and a pointer dog, he never would have got his goods without the

A STBOLOGY. THE WORLD ASTONISHED MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST, MADAME H. A. PERRIGO,

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue, and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages, and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secresy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desuring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a lock of hair. Address
